Nursing Excellence: “What Makes the Difference”

Our three speakers this year all have dynamic personalities and a wealth of knowledge to share. They have been an integral part of shaping the direction of both academic and clinical nursing over the past thirty years in Central Georgia.

Dr. Cheryl Kish and Pat Brown, MSN are both retired educators. Dr. Kish is the retired Associate Dean College of Health Sciences and Director of the School of Nursing at Georgia College and State University in Milledgeville and Mrs. Brown was the Chair of Nursing and Health Science at Gordon College for many years.

They will be sharing their observations/experiences about “Nursing Excellence-What Makes the Difference?” addressing such topics as “how do we know when we see excellence?” and “how do we measure excellence?” They will provide us insight into what has changed and what has stayed the same as the nursing profession has grown.

Lavonne Harn, MSN is a retired Administrator from the Medical Center of Central Georgia. She is well known in Central Georgia for her humorous and uplifting presentations. Her topic will cover the important role of mentors in the enhancement of your professional development. The title of her presentation is “Don’t Judge a Book by its Cover.”

These three women will inspire, enrich, and widen your perspective on nursing and life. Join your fellow nurses from across Central Georgia in this exciting annual Leadership event.

Lunch and time for networking will be provided.
